

Dear Parents/Carers,

Below is a copy of the spellings which will be tested this half term – there is a general spelling rule and words from the Y5/Y6 statutory spelling list.

Please keep this spelling list in a safe place or take a photo on your phone to help you support [as necessary] your child’s learning at home. There is a copy of the spelling list on the school website [Curriculum – Year 6 – spellings] should you misplace the list. All spelling tests (apart from Wednesday, 28 March) will be on a Friday.

Many thanks for your continued support.

Mr Gray

| Week 1Test date 23/02/2018                                                                              |                                                                                                                         | Week 2Test date: 02/03/2018                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                   | Week 3Test date: 09/03/2018                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Please revise all the Y5/6 statutory spellings learned so far in preparation for a randomised test.         |                                                                                                                         | Spelling ruleUsing Suffixes                                                                                    | Year 5 and 6 statutory spellings                                                                                           | Spelling ruleUsing Suffixes                                                                                           | Year 5 and 6 statutory spellings                                                                                            |
|                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                         | nicestsensiblecyclingtastedslimyjokerfamousobservantappreciatingfading                   | equippedembarrassexistenceexaggerateexcellentespeciallyexplanationfamiliarfortyfrequently | carelessflavourlesshopefuldeceitfulmeannesslatenessachievementamazementdefinitelythoroughly     | guaranteegovernmentharasshindranceidentityimmediateimmediatelyindividualinterfereinterrupt |
| Week 4Test date: 16/03/18                                                                               |                                                                                                                         | Week 5Test date: 23/03/18                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                   | Week 6Test Date: 28/03/18                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                    |
| Spelling ruleHomophones                                                                   | Year 5 and 6 statutory spellings                                                                                 | Spelling ruleSuffixes                                                                                          | Year 5 and 6 statutory spellings                                                                                           | Spelling ruleHyphens                                                                                                  | Year 5 and 6 statutory spellings                                                                                            |
| principalprincipleproceedprecedebridalbridlewearywaryweatherwhether | languagelightningmarvellousmentionmusclenecessarynuisanceoccuroccupyopportunity | beginningadmittancestoppablepermittingpreferredregrettablewettestforgottenfunnyreferring | parliamentpeculiarpersuadephysicalpopularpositionprejudiceprivilegeprofessionprogramme    | co-operatere-enterre-openco-ordinateco-ownre-explainre-energiseco-operationre-enactpre-recorded | pronunciationquestionqueuerecommendrelevantrestaurantrhymesacrificesecretaryshoulder       |