Forum Coffee Afternoon

The Forum ladies have been in school this morning decorating cakes with the Year 3 & 4 children. The coffee afternoon was a great success and raised £184 for Hospice Care.

Football

On Thursday 9th November, 8 footballers from Year 6 ventured into Alnwick, on the 472 bus, to compete in a NUF competition against other North Northumberland schools. Full of excitement, the well-coached side took the field for the opening game against Whittingham and secured an excellent 1-0 win. A draw against Swansfield Park and a win against Seahouses helped the team progress to the semi-finals.

Unfortunately, it was not to be their day conceding 2 late goals against the eventual winners Dr Tomlinson. Team members: Hamish, Jay, Phoenix, Archie, Ivy-Mae, Jasmine, Lucas & Rowan.

Christmas Schedule

Please see the updated 'dates for the Diary' section of the newsletter and the detailed letter issued earlier in the week for the events that are happening in school to celebrate Christmas this year.

PE Kit for outdoors

As the weather turns colder we ask that children have suitable jogging trousers and long sleeved top for PE outdoors. Wherever possible we always aim to have lessons outdoors as we limited indoor space and it enables the children to have some fresh air.
